Our 1981 Black Arts Calendar celebrates THE BLACK WOMAN.

where she is
where she has been and her achievements where she is going

The black woman

whether the courageous St. Perpetua and St. Felicity, martyrs at Carthage; youthful Phillis Wheatley, second American woman to publish poetry;
heroic Harriet Tubman leading slaves to freedom; crusading Ida B. Wells lighting a path with her journalistic pen has persevered through adversity to provide hope for the future of all people.

The black woman has carried the pain of slavery in her heart; the seed of hope in her soul. In 1981 more than ever, we need to call upon the strengths and values that helped a people pour many a mountain. We need to recall:

the word of Fannie Lou Hamer

the song of Marian Anderson

the prayer of Mary Elizabeth Lange

May the nobility and greatness of BLACK WOMAN, informed by their faith, their hope and their love carry us all to a new earth.

*Sing joyfully to the Lord
Come before him, with joyful song.
Psalm 100:1*
